Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British Subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

Relative Rank.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS, we have judged it expedient to cancel our Royal Warrant of 28th March, 1861, which assigns the relative rank of Junior Major to certain Staff and Regimental Surgeons of our Army, and to revise those parts of the several other Royal Warrants now in force, prescribing the privileges attaching to relative rank of Officers of the Civil Departments and Non-Combatant Officers of the Military Departments of our Army: Our will and pleasure is, that such privileges shall, from the date of this our Royal Warrant, be regulated as follows:—

Relative rank shall carry with it all precedence and advantages attaching to the Military rank with which it corresponds, and shall regulate the rates of Lodging Money, number of servants, rations of Fuel and Light, or allowances in their stead, except for Officers and others to whom special rates have been assigned, detention and Prize Money, according to the regulations, and upon the conditions, in force from time to time; but such relative rank shall not entitle the holder to Military command of any kind whatsoever, nor to the presidency of courts martial, courts of enquiry, committees, or boards of survey, but when the president of such courts, committees or boards shall be junior to the Officer of the Civil Department, then such member of the Civil Department shall attend as a witness, and not as a member.

Choice of quarters shall be regulated by relative rank according to date of Commission; except in the case of Commanding Officers' Quarters, and in cases in which special quarters shall be permanently appropriated, with the approval of the Secretary of State for War.

Relative rank shall not entitle the holder to salutes from Ships or Fortresses, nor to the turning out of Guards; but it shall entitle him, if Commissioned, to salutes by Sentries, or by individual Soldiers.

Honorary rank of Paymasters shall carry with it all the privileges and advantages attaching to relative rank of corresponding degree.

GENERAL ORDER. No. 826.

Gymnastics.—1 (1863).

Horse Guards, S.W., 30th May, 1863.

THE Field Marshal Commanding in Chief has desired that the following regulations be circulated for general information and guidance, with a view to the established system of Military Gymnastics being carried out on a uniform plan at all stations where Gymnasia are or shall hereafter be constructed.

The object of the system is to develop and increase the physical powers of the men; and the exercises laid down are so arranged that, while the most advanced are sufficient to test the powers of the strongest, the preliminary ones can be performed without injury to the weakest frame.

Depôt Battalions and Stations where Recruits are trained.

The gymnastic training of recruits is to commence simultaneously with the squad-drill without arms; and in order that this shall not interfere with the prescribed Musketry course, His Royal Highness has decided, that under ordinary circumstances recruits shall not be handed over to the Musketry Instructor for the first two months after joining, during which time the gymnastic training will form a component portion of the ordinary recruit drill, marching, manual and platoon exercises, &c.

As a general rule, one hour's drill in the gymnasium daily will be sufficient for the first month, during the whole of which time the gymnastic drill is to be carefully confined to the elementary exercises, and on no account to go beyond the second course. Previously to commencing the course, measurements are to be taken of the chests and arms of the recruit,—his height, weight and age are also to be noted. Measurements are to be again taken at the termination of the course, or when he takes his place in the ranks.

At the end of the first month the progress of the recruits is to be tested, and all those who are found capable of performing efficiently the exercises in the second course, are to be formed into separate squads, and instructed in the exercises of the third course; those who are incapable, repeating the second, and their attendance at the gymnasium being increased to two hours daily, if requisite.

At the end of the second month, the squads should be tested again, and all those sufficiently advanced selected for further instruction in the fourth and fifth courses, after they shall have undergone the prescribed musketry course for recruits.

All recruits, however active and powerful naturally, are then to continue the gymnastic exercises for a third month, and at the end of that time a selection is again to be made, and all those who come up to a standard of strength and activity—the test being the capability of performing all the exercises laid down in the fourth course—are to be relieved from further attendance at the gymnasium as a drill, leaving it optional for them to further improve themselves by voluntary practice, for which the gymnasium is to be open at stated hours.

Weak and awkward recruits are to be kept under gymnastic training for six months; and if at the end of that time they should be below the standard of efficiency laid down, a detailed report of their cases is to be made to the Adjutant General.

Camps or Garrison.

In camps or garrisons the gymnastic instruction of the drilled soldier is to be carried on in such a manner as to interfere as little as possible with the ordinary duties, and this can be done without difficulty, as follows:—

A certain number of men should be selected, (the number depending upon the capacity of the gymnasium, but in no case to exceed one-sixth of the garrison,) and subjected to a strict medical examination—all those with rupture, or a tendency to it, being rejected; they should then be formed into squads, and detailed to attend every alternate day for one hour, taking care that the guards and other garrison duties are not interfered with.

The accompanying Table, marked A., shows the hours of instruction at a gymnasium capable of containing sixty men at a time; the same, with such slight alterations as circumstances might require, would serve for all garrison gymnasia.

The duration of the course is not to exceed three months.

In selecting men to go through a course of gymnastics, the attendance of men under ten years' service is to be made compulsory, as it is upon such men that the course will work the greatest benefit.

Some years must necessarily elapse before the system can become general in the Army, and the full benefit of it felt; by which time, probably, most of the men now over ten years' service will have received their discharge.

The object of gymnastic training, after the forming of the recruits, is to harden and strengthen the trained Soldier, so as to enable him to cover 1,000 or more yards of ground at a rapid pace, and leave him in good wind and able to use his bayonet efficiently; this, with very rare exceptions, is an impossibility at present, though it is within the power of whole battalions in some of the foreign armies, which have proved the advantages of it in the field.

Every encouragement is to be given to the Officers and Non-commissioned Officers of Cavalry to receive instruction in fencing, for which purpose classes are to be formed, and certain hours set apart for the men to practise gymnastics voluntarily; but no man is to be allowed to attend a voluntary class until he shall have gone through a three months' course.

In order further to encourage the men—at the end of every three months' course three or four of the most efficient are to be retained at the Gymnasium to go through a second course, at the termination of which, if they showed further improvement, and gave promise of becoming efficient instructors, they should be appointed Assistant Instructors, from among whom the regular Instructors are to be selected as required.

Brigade of Guards.

The duties which the Foot Guards have to perform, and the distance of the different barracks in London from the St. John's Wood Gymnasium, render different arrangements necessary. The present plan is to detach one company from each battalion, and give the men three hours' exercise at gymnastics daily for one month, no other duties being required of them during that time. Four companies have gone through a course on this plan with satisfactory results; and the existing system will be continued in the Guards division, subject to further orders.

A few rules suitable for all gymnasia are appended.

By Command of His ROYAL HIGHNESS

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF.

RULES TO BE OBSERVED IN ALL GYMNASIA.

1. Previously to going through a course of gymnastic training, all men must undergo a strict medical examination as to fitness.
2. The attendance of men under 10 years' service is compulsory—above 10 years voluntary.
3. Weak or awkward men should be selected in preference to any others.
4. The duration of a lesson is not to exceed one hour and a half.

5. When combined with recruit drill, attendance at the gymnasium is required daily for one hour during the first month; subsequently the attendance may be increased to two hours if requisite.
6. Measurements must be carefully taken of the chest and arm of each man at the commencement and termination of each course; the measurement of the chest is to be taken with the arms stretched out horizontally, the fore arm with the arm extended and fist clenched, and the upper arm with the arm doubled up and fist clenched. The weight and height are also to be recorded.
7. The duty Soldier is only required for one hour every alternate day.
8. The duration of a course is three months.
9. No man is to be allowed to attend the gymnasium for voluntary practice, unless he has gone through a three months' course of instruction.
10. Instructors are always to be present during voluntary practice.
11. Instruction in fencing and gymnastics is to be afforded to such Officers and Non-commissioned Officers as desire it, at such times as the Officer superintending the gymnasium may appoint.
12. A return according to the annexed form, marked B, is to be furnished to the Director of Gymnastics, for transmission to the Adjutant-General at the termination of each course.
